

MARK OBLINGER

Five-time Emmy winning and Grammy nominated composer/ producer Mark Oblinger brings his soulful, eclectic blend of folk/pop to the stage in 2024, featuring powerful, vocal forward arrangements from his breakout release, "High Water Line" —PLUS new songs from his latest EP; "The River" released January 5th, 2024.

"High Water Line" garnered a host of national reviews, press and radio airplay on both commercial and noncommercial Americana and AAA formats and tour dates including the iconic Café Bohemia, the Rockwood Music Hall, and The Bitter End in New York City.

This past April, Mark released the first single from "The River" — his very alternative take on the Pure Prairie League classic Amie. The second single, Lead the Way (Bessie's Eyes) was released on September 22, and both have already received featured airplay on KRFC and the Colorado Playlist.

Mark's national performing roots include stints with chart topping country rock stalwarts Pure Prairie League (Amie) and Firefall (Cinderella, You Are the Woman). From there, Mark has had the good fortune to work with Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Richie Furay (Buffalo Springfield, Poco) Garth Brooks, Amy Grant, John Oates, Jeff Hanna, Michael Martin Murphy and more.

With works featured on the Oprah Winfrey Show, Mark was a 2012 Grammy nominee for his Children's Jazz Symphony — "Jumpin' Jazz Kids — A Swinging Jungle Tale," featuring the great Al Jarreau. Mark also won 5 Emmys for his work on the PBS Show, "The Big Green Rabbit."

Mark is joined on tour by an all-star line up that includes singer/ keyboardist and co-writer Linda Lawson, eTown drummer/singer Christian Teele, bassist Chris Engleman and multi-instrumentalist Eric Moon on lap steel, keys, accordion and vocals.
